

GOH CHYE BOON

Chief Executive Officer of the Sino-Singapore Tianjin Eco-City Investment & Development Co., Ltd

Goh Chye Boon is the Chief Executive Officer of the Sino-Singapore Tianjin Eco-City Investment & Development Co Ltd. As a flagship project between the PRC and Singapore Governments, the Sino-Singapore Tianjin Eco-City is envisioned to create a harmonious and sustainable community that meets the needs of an urbanizing China. Strategically located within the fast-growing Tianjin Binhai New Area and only 40 km away from Tianjin Municipal, the 30 sq km Tianjin Eco-City will be a modern township where 350,000 residents can live, work and play.

Prior to this, Mr. Goh was the Deputy Secretary (Special Projects) for the Singapore Ministry of Trade and Industry (MTI). As DS (Special Projects), he was responsible for overseeing the organisation of the inaugural Formula One Night Race that was held in Singapore in September 2008. He is also on the board of the Economic Development Board.

Before that, Mr. Goh was the Deputy Secretary (Industry) of MTI, and was responsible for formulating policies to facilitate the development of Singapore's industry sectors and enterprises.

Before joining MTI, Mr. Goh was the Executive Director of External Department at the Monetary Authority of Singapore, where he co-chaired the Organising Committee for the 2006 IMF-World Bank Group of Governors Annual Meetings when it was held in Singapore.

Mr. Goh's previous postings in Singapore include the Ministry of Defence, Ministry of Community Development, the People's Association, National Youth Council and the Ministry of Finance.
