

Steve Willett
Managing Director
Lend Lease China Project Management & Construction

Steve Willett is Managing Director for Lend Lease China Project Management & Construction and is a highly experienced project & construction professional. Steve has spent over 12 years working in Greater China of which the last 8 years he has been based in Shanghai. Steve has over 20 years' experience in the construction and project management industry and joined Lend Lease in 1998. Steve has been involved in the delivery of over 50 projects in China for major multinational clients like, Merck, Roche, Hanesbrands, GE, Nokia, Corning, SAP etc.

Steve holds a Bachelor of Civil and Structural Engineering (Honours) from the University of Sydney and has previously worked in Australia; Taiwan and Hong Kong on a variety of different projects such as large road projects; 1.5km span bridges; large airports; commercial buildings; large retail projects and large complex industrial projects. Steve has executed these projects from concept design through to handover and running the initial set up of maintenance teams. Steve holds a Bachelor of Civil and Structural Engineering (Honours) of University of Sydney and LEED AP accredited by USGBC.